Meanwhile Siki is playing hide and seek with the French boxing federa-tion, saying that he will not appear before its committee which is investigating the alleged frame-up in the Siki-Carpentier bout in which the negro fighter decisively defeated the white man. The federation is still awaiting an answer from Siki to its last letter summoning him before the committee on Friday to make a state-

SIKI CALLED AGAIN.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—"Battling" Siki, the Senegalese pugilist, who has refused to appear before the French Boxing fedappear before the French Boaing led-eration in the investigation of the charges of a frame up in his fight with Georges Carpentler, was again sum-moned by the federation in a letter sent him Wednesday to come before the federation Friddy evening. The federation has declared it would not permit another fight between Siki and carpentier unless the negro appeared before the investigating committe.

An afternoon newspaper in what purports to be a new "inside story of the frame up" says the Siki-Carpentier fight was only one of a series of such battles. It asserts that the situation surrounding the hout between Siki and surrounding the bout between Siki and Carpentier was presented to the box-ing commission soon after the fight, but the federation took the advice of one of its counselors to "hush up the matter in order to save the honor of the game." ST PAUL, Dec. 14—Only enough training to keep on edge for Friday's bout was today's program for both Tommy Gibbons and Billy Miske, St.
